

Cancellation and Refund Policy due to COVID: The challenges surrounding Covid-19 have resulted in ongoing and often unavoidable uncertainty with both domestic and international travel. If an airline that we have booked reservations with cancels flights due to Covid, or if the country of destination (or another where we are scheduled to layover) denies entry due to Covid regulations or requires quarantine arrangements that makes a short trip no longer feasible as decided by One Plus God, then One Plus God will use its best efforts to reschedule your trip with as little financial change as possible. If rescheduling is not a viable option, the airlines may decide to refund plane tickets, or give airfare credit, but One Plus God cannot accept any responsibility for airline refunding decisions or procedures. In the event of trip cancellation due to flight cancellation, denial of entry, or infeasibility, your deposits, except for the nonrefundable initial deposit, will be refunded by One Plus God.

In the event you personally decide not to attend your scheduled trip due to concerns for your health and safety, concerns about travel restrictions (including vaccine requirements), concerns about mandated quarantine upon your return, or any other reason, the non-Covid Cancellation and Refund Policy set forth in paragraph 3, "Cancellation and Refund Policy" on your original financial agreement, shall apply.

It is your responsibility as a Participant to determine what consequences, if any, may result from your decision to attend a scheduled trip. One Plus God will not be responsible for any quarantine, whether imposed by your Employer, school, or government (federal, state, or local), or for any resulting loss of income, loss of benefits, loss of employment, or medical or other expenses imposed upon a Participant or any member of Participant's household as the result of your decision to attend your trip. No refunds will be available to any Participant that attends their scheduled trip.
